THE HISTORY OF J-HENRYS

Shane Lee opened J-Henrys in 1988 with one thing in mind; to serve the best quality fish and chips. The shop is named after his eldest son John-Henry Lee. Shane had already been in the industry for 10 years prior to opening J-Henrys, 30 years later and Shane still feels as passionate about the business as he did back in '88.

He now owns 4 shops, chipping 250 tonnes of potatoes every year and still a true family business. Both his sons and daughters are involved with the business, even his eldest granddaughter is now helping out. The family all have a genuine love for the business.

The fish and chips are freshly prepared every day with the best quality ingredients.
